Orange Bowl 'T' Test: Georgia, Outweighed by Texas, Must Use Speed and Deception

By Frank Leahy
Notre Dame University Football Coach

A terrific "T" party should result Saturday in the Orange Bowl at Miami when two of the Nation's most successful exponents of this system face each other.

The South-easterly Conference champion, Georgia, led by Johnny Rauch, will oppose the South western Conference runner-up from the University of Texas.

Coach Wally Butts of Georgia will have to fully exploit the speed and deception of his Bulldogs to compensate for the weight advantage held by the Longhorns.

Statistics show that the Texans will outweigh the Georgians 64 pounds per man.

This contest will test an amazing record held by each of the coaches, and by the schools they represent.

Neither Blair Cherry of Texas nor Butts has ever been affiliated with a team that lost a bowl contest. The Longhorns have played in four and the Bulldogs in five. The coaching records give Cherry a slight edge in percentage although his tenure has not been as long as his opponent's.

The Texas mentor has won 76.2 per cent of 21 games, while Butts has won 72.4 per cent of 109 contests.

Texas, always a high scoring, passing aggregation, will meet its match when it faces the sharp-shooting Rauch. Butts favors the system of having his left halfback pass the ball after he has received it from the quarterback.

This maneuver serves to confuse the enemy, as evidenced by the passing records held by the former Georgia halfbacks, Frankie Sinkwich and Charley Trippi, in the Orange Bowl and Sugar Bowl, respectively.

From a wooden saucer seating 8,000 persons to a beautiful stadium that will hold more than 60,000 is the story of the growth of this game. Originated as a plan to present an outstanding Northern representative against an equally powerful Southern standard bearer, the Miami classic first received real national recognition when unbeaten Tennessee registered a 17-0 victory over the Oklahoma Sooners in 1939.

I hope to witness a fine game. (McNulty Syndicate, Inc.)

Seven Games Slated In Boys' Club Tourney

Seven games were scheduled today in the Boys' Club of Washington Christmas basketball tournament. Action was to begin at 1 p.m. with an 80-pound contest between Merrick and Eastern Branch. A 135-pound game between Georgetown Branch and Alexandria is slated to wind up the opening day's schedule at 8 p.m. All games are at Eastern Branch.

Three were played yesterday. Stan Altman pushed in 19 points to lead the Merrick 90-pounders to a 46-4 victory over Eastern Branch, while Virginia Avenue nicked Trinidad, 20-17, in another 90-pound game and Alexandria won over Georgetown Branch, 44-30, in the 80-pound class.

'Y' Holds Open House

The Central YMCA will hold open house Saturday. Exhibitions in basketball, swimming, jujitsu and a championship handball game between Gus Goldstein and S. Papendrew will highlight the program. There were more than 5,000 visitors last year.

Basketers to Weigh In

Players in the Arlington Recreation Athletic Association Basketball League are requested to weigh in tonight at the county recreation department, 2700 Wisconsin highway. Team rosters are required.

Wilkinson No. 1 Choice to Take Coaching Berth at Wisconsin

Special Dispatch to The Star
CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—Charles "Bud" Wilkinson is Wisconsin's No. 1 choice to succeed Harry A. Stuhldreher as head football coach in 1949.

The former Minnesota gridiron great, now drilling his Oklahoma eleven at Biloxi, Miss., for Saturday's Sugar Bowl game with North Carolina, can have the post if he wants it.

No formal offer has been made to the Sooner boss. But it was leaked that one will be made officially within a week.

He has indicated to intimate friends that he is "quite satisfied" at Oklahoma, but other sources say Wilkinson is tempted to test his skill in the tough Western Conference.

He tops a list of 15 candidates being surveyed by the Wisconsin Board of Regents, who will name their top man at Madison January 15.

Others seriously considered are: Howie Odell, University of Washington; Henry Prinka, Tulane; Lisle Blackbourn, now Badger backfield coach, and Win Brockmeyer, high school coach at Wausau, Wis.

Stuhldreher, now in Pasadena to attend the New Year's Day Rose Bowl classic, stepped down as head coach three weeks ago, but retained his post as Badger athletic director.

He is expected to confer with Wilkinson next week, during the annual NCAA and American Football Coaches' Association meetings in San Francisco.

Wilkinson, who still ranks among Minnesota's greatest all-around football players, succeeded Jim Tatum as Oklahoma's head man this year and took the Sooners to the Big Six championship and into the Sugar Bowl.

They lost only one game, a 20-17 opener to Santa Clara.
